

Guest Conductor

David Lawrence

We are delighted to again welcome David Lawrence as our Guest Conductor after his most successful and enjoyable visit to Townsville in 2005.

David Lawrence is one of the UK's most versatile choral conductors and his posts currently include those of Associate Conductor of the City of Birmingham Symphony Chorus, Choir Leader of the City of Birmingham Young Voices, Musical Director of The Sage Gateshead's Regional Youth Choir, Quay Voices, and he is a regular guest conductor of the Netherlands Radio Choir. As Principal Conductor of Young Voices he directs massed voices in an annual series of concerts with some choirs incorporating over 8,000 singers, and consequently holds the Guinness World Record for conducting the UK's largest choir.

Forthcoming engagements include education projects with the orchestra Viva, further work with the Netherlands Radio Choir as well as performances in Hungary, Portugal, the Netherlands and a return visit to Queensland, Australia.
