Presenter:

Melissa Dods lectures part time in music at Melbourne University. She was a music specialist for thirteen years at Melbourne Grammar Junior School – Grimwade House and is currently teaching music part time at St Catherine's in Melbourne. Melissa is an experienced workshop leader with extensive background in the Kodaly and Orff approaches. Her main area of expertise is with vocal skills, and for the last ten years she has lectured in this area as part of the National Accredited Orff Level Training Courses. Melissa has been a long-term member of the Victorian Kodaly and Orff committees and has served on both in executive positions. She is currently the President of the Victorian Orff Shulwerk Association. At one stage in Victoria she was the State coordinator of “Do Re Mi” – a national Kodaly based music program for babies and preschoolers, and organized a number of events in this capacity. Melissa is very committed to promoting singing in school music programs and in young children’s choirs. She has worked with both school and community choirs in Melbourne.
