

Big Kodály Music Day 2016

Ian Harrison Memorial Workshop

Sunday 2 October

Singing Games for All Ages

A practical session of age appropriate games covering early years to adult. This workshop is suitable for music educators in both primary and secondary schools, as well as those working with adults in community settings.

Lucinda Geoghegan is currently a theory and musicianship lecturer at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland working in both the Senior and Junior departments and in addition since 2011 has also been delivering and assessing RCS accredited modules in Kodály Philosophy to external students. She is a regular tutor for the British Kodály Academy.

Lucinda is Education Director for the National Youth Choir of Scotland and her work increasingly includes Staff Development training across Britain presenting workshops on Kodály musicianship and methodology. She is a regular guest lecturer on the summer and yearly courses at the Kodály Institute in Kecskemét, Hungary and in addition has delivered workshops in Ireland, Germany, Holland, Singapore, Indonesia and Australia.
