KODÁLY CONNECT WITH ROSALIE SCOTT

Rosalie Scott is an experienced music teacher with over 15 years in the classroom teaching students from three years of age through to adults. A member of the Kodály WA Management Committee since its inception, Rosalie is passionate about sharing Kodály's philosophy with colleagues and students alike. She is currently working in regional Western Australia at John Paul College and the International School of Music, Kalgoorlie. An Australian Kodály Certificate accredited lecturer in Primary and Secondary Music Pedagogy with an interest in the transformational power of Music Education, Rosalie welcomes every opportunity to engage with colleagues in sharing ideas and expertise across all areas of Music Education.

KODÁLY CONNECT WITH LANA WINFIELD

Lana Winfield is an experienced and passionate Music Specialist, currently at Hammond Park Primary School where she established the Music program in 2016 using a Kodály-inspired approach. She teaches students from Kindergarten to Year 6 and is in charge of the school's two choirs and instrumental program. Lana is the team leader of the Specialist teachers at her school and the Music teachers in the Cockburn Central Education Network. Inspired by her own experience as a student of a Kodály-based Music program, she became a Music teacher to share the joy of music-making with others, graduating with a BMusEd from the University of Western Australia in 2010. Lana has completed all three levels of the Primary course of the Australian Kodály Certificate.
