Kristin Abercrombie is a passionate educator, who holds a Bachelor of Music from Excelsia College Sydney and a Masters of Education from Alphacrucis. Kristin has studied Classical and Contemporary voice and has tutored around Sydney's Inner West. She embarked on a journey to Western Australia, where she spent 2 years working with disengaged students and assisted them in re-entering the school system. Kristin has completed her Secondary levels 1 and 2 within the AKC and has developed a passion for Kodaly Pedagogy along with her experience in behaviour management. She has taught from Pre-Primary to Year 12 and has spend the last 3 years at Foundation Christian College starting a Kodaly Music Programme from K-12 alongside her mentor Peter Shanhun. Kristin had been the K-12 Music Coordinator for the past year and in 2024, she will also serve the school as the Head of Arts.

KODÁLY CONNECT WITH PETER SHANHUN

Peter Shanhun has over 20 years of diverse teaching experience in Western Australia, including Classroom Music from K – 12 in Government, Private and Catholic systems. Peter taught Voice for IMSS for 7 Years, and has taken Choirs in numerous contexts. Peter served as president of the Kodály Music Education Institute of Australia, Western Australian Branch from 2016 – 2017. He has completed the Australian Kodály Certificate and a Masters in Kodály Music Pedagogy at the Kodály Institute of the Liszt Academy in Kecskemét. Peter is passionate about every child receiving a quality Music education. He is now enjoying the Mandurah life, and is Head of Secondary at Foundation Christian College, which his wife, a PrePrimary teacher, and three children also attend.
